DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants' amendment filed July 18, 2006 is acknowledged and has been entered. Claims 1-6 have been canceled. Claims 7-18 are now pending in the present application. All rejections have been withdrawn in view of Applicants' amendment to the claims and/or comments, with the exception of those discussed below.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claims 7-18 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 2 of US Patent 6872399. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both applications claim a dermatomycosis vaccine comprising inactivated dermatophyte strains.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

This rejection is maintained for the reasons of record. It is noted that copending application 10/085703 is now US Patent 6872399. Applicants respectfully request that this rejection be addressed when the claims are found to be allowable the subject matter of the claims may be amended during prosecution.

This rejection is maintained for the reasons of record. Applicant's arguments filed December 16, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With regard to the obvious-type double-patenting rejection, Applicants have stated that a terminal disclaimer will be submitted to ensure that any patent issuing on the subject application will have the same term as the '399 patent.

This rejection is maintained for the reasons of record. Applicant's arguments filed July 18, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants have indicated that they will submit a terminal disclaimer to ensure that any patent issuing on the subject application will have the same term as the '399 patent.

It is noted that Applicants' representative was contacted several times during the week of September 25, 2006 requesting a terminal disclaimer in an effort to advance prosecution. This rejection will be maintained until a properly filed terminal disclaimer has been accepted.

4. No claims are allowed.
5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
